Guest Column

Largo Turns a Page is always one of the most exciting programs that we host each year! This year, we were very excited to welcome best-selling romance author, Christina Lauren! Christina Hobbs and Lauren Billings traveled from Utah and California, respectively, to speak with us about their writing process, working with a co-author, the 30+ books that they've written, and why they love writing in the romance genre.

Questions from the audience and some of our staff members made for an interesting and entertaining evening! The discussion opened up with a question for them about why they love writing romance and Lauren summed up her love for the genre as being about hope; that you pick up a rom-com because you want to read a story about someone who gets a happily ever after, even if there is a little turbulence along the way. As a newly minted fan of rom-coms, I couldn't agree more.

LTAP may be through, but you can still find plenty of copies of Christina Lauren's many books on our shelves, and keep an eye out for their next two releases - The Paradise Problem and Tangled Up in You coming to our library shelves this Summer!

A Fresh Look!
 The crosswalk between the Library and Largo Central Park is getting a fresh look, with a new mural debuting this April! To allow the artists time to paint safely, the crosswalk will be blocked to pedestrians and vehicles from April 19th – April 28th. While visiting the library during this time please access Central Park Drive via 8th Avenue to enter the Library parking lot.

BE THE CHANGE

By Brenda Haferman

The theme of this issue is Free to Read, a direct nod to our promotional program of the same name. Free to Read @ Largo Public Library focuses on the free resources and access to information here at the library, as well as the programs and materials available to patrons. One of the most wonderful things about using your local public library is the ability to walk in and have the freedom to read, watch, and listen to what you want, when you want, and in a variety of mediums at no cost. If you can't find what you're looking for here, titles can be requested from other library collections and even from outside of the county!

As we navigate 2024 and all the changes that come with it, Largo Public Library strives to provide a diverse and high quality collection of materials and resources, with an ongoing focus on protecting intellectual freedom so that you, and anyone else, can have the freedom to read whatever you want to.

From now through the end of September, join us for various programs across all of our departments celebrating the books that you love and your right to read them!

FREE TO READ LIBRARY CARD

Is it time to renew your library card or have a friend who still hasn't gotten one? Now is the perfect time! Beginning April 1st a special library card, exclusive to Largo Public Library, will be available to anyone needing a new or replacement card! Designed by staff, these cards function exactly the same as our blue PPLC cards and are accepted at all PPLC libraries. Did we mention they come with the keychain card, too? These cards will be available while supplies last.

FREE TO READ EVENTS & CONTESTS

A new icon is making an appearance in this issue! This colorful little icon (🌈) indicates that the associated program is part of our Free to Read (F2R) programming! Programs may be marked with both 🌈 and Ⓡ, indicating that there is registration required.

🌈 Recycled Book Art Show - Request for Submissions
 Apr 1 - May 31
 Ages 13 and up

Calling all artists! Throughout the months of April and May, celebrate the written word by submitting original artwork made from recycled books to our Art Contest. The artwork will showcase in the Library's Gallery 120 in June and July where a panel of judges and our community can vote for their favorite pieces. Prizes will be awarded by the panel to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners. A People's Choice prize will also be awarded for each category by a popular vote from our community. Artwork may be 2D or 3D but cannot exceed 18" by 12".

Used books will be available to repurpose for this art show, stop by the Circulation desk to pick one up to use in your artwork.

Prizes are as follows: 1st place: $100; 2nd place: $50; 3rd place: $25; People's Choice: $50.

Through the Looking Glass Nōtan
Tue | May 28 | 6:00pm

Nōtan is a Japanese word used to describe the harmonious balance between dark and light. We'll put this concept into practice by cutting shapes from a square of paper and creating mirror images: one dark and one light.

Spring Into Reading

Spring Into Reading Adult Reading Challenge
April 1 – April 30

Reset, refocus, read!

Spring is known for many things—flowers blooming, spring cleaning, refreshing your look—and now, Largo Public Library's Spring Into Reading Adult Reading Challenge. Reignite your passion for reading and help us beat 2023's Spring Reading Challenge of 145 total books completed! Stop by the library to sign up for the challenge, running April 1st-April 30th, and pick up your review cards. Each review you complete gets you closer to the grand prize drawing of a spring-themed gift basket. Weekly prizes will also be awarded. The more you read, the more chances you have to win!

Be one of the first 60 patrons to register for the challenge and complete your first review card to receive a Largo Public Library beach towel!

Participants must be 18+, be a resident of Pinellas County and possess a valid Pinellas Public Library Cooperative card in good standing to win prizes. All prizes must be picked up in person.

For details, ask a staff member or go to our website LargoPublicLibrary.org

Gallery 120

The purpose of the Creative Artists' Guild is to bring together artists to share experiences, expertise and provide for the exchange of artistic ideas and information.

We work together to develop & promote the Dunedin artistic community as well as by arranging exhibits, shows, and other means to further the purpose of local artists. Our group was founded in 1970 as the Dunedin Art Guild and evolved into the Creative Artists Guild in 1978. Since then, it has remained one of the area's most active fine arts organizations. Membership is open to all those interested in the fine arts, attending meetings, and participating in the many other activities of the Guild. The membership represents a progressive group of artists and their supporters who share a mutual interest and encourage public awareness in the art field.

From April - September the library will host displays featuring books that highlight our diverse collection. If you are looking for recommendations, new brochures are available with suggested titles for all age-groups. We are also happy to share recommendations! Keep an eye out while browsing for staff recommendations and reviews; you may discover a new favorite!

Largo's New Seed Library

By Delaney Roque

Discover the Seed Library at Largo Public Library - your gateway to green adventures, starting early summer 2024!

With a diverse array of seeds available for borrowing, the Seed Library caters to gardeners of all levels, whether you're a seasoned pro or just starting out. From aromatic herbs to vibrant flowers, our collection offers something for everyone's gardening aspirations.

In a fast-paced world dominated by technology, the Seed Library at Largo Public Library provides a stress-free sanctuary, delving back to your roots with nature, growing, nurturing and connecting with community.

And here's the best part: our policy allows for you to check out up to three seed packets a week per household. Seed packets are available on a first-come, first-served basis and do not have a due date. You won't need to bring anything back to the library - just enjoy your gardening journey!

Book Clubs & Contests

Book Clubs

Attention readers! Sign up early in the Children's Department to receive your book and activity packet. Visit the library to discuss the book, learn about similar books, and complete an activity. For these book clubs, the packets are available a month prior to the date listed to allow for enough time to read the book and work through the packet. Registrations must be made in-person at the Children's Service Desk. Book club meetings are held Wednesdays at 6pm on the dates listed below.

Genealogy Lectures

Finding Family: Hidden Roots in Your DNA

Sat | Apr 20 | 11:0am

Learn how adoptees and others find biological parents and siblings through DNA testing. Review the case that started it all and see today's recommended strategies. View examples of surprise discoveries and see the tools used to identify relationships.

Richard Hill was the first adoptee to identify his birth family through genetic genealogy DNA testing. This was so innovative at the time that his story appeared on the front page of The Wall Street Journal as Family Secrets: An Adopted Man's 26-Year Quest for His Father. To share what he learned with other adoptees and genealogists, he created the DNA Testing Adviser website in 2008, the first major DNA website that was not created by a testing company. He has educated thousands of readers and has answered a flood of individual questions. He now speaks about his experiences and runs the DNA Favorites website from his home in Michigan.

Getting the Most from FamilySearch.org

Sat | May 18 | 11:00am

Explore all that FamilySearch.org has to offer including powerful search features, online family trees, family activities, digitized books, an exciting app feature, Memories (a digital scrapbook), the research wiki, and how to get help from the FamilySearch community. Pinellas Genealogy Society at Largo Library now provides free access to the fully unlocked version of FamilySearch.org.

Tamara Hallo is a professional genealogist based in Miami with over 25 years of experience as an educator with a Master of Library Science degree. A lifelong learner, she holds a certificate of genealogical research from Boston University and has completed the ProGen study program. Most recently, she has completed the Advanced Genealogical Methods and the Fundamentals of Hispanic Genealogical Research at the Salt Lake Institute of Genealogy. She conducts thorough family research for clients adhering to the standards of both the National Genealogical Society (NGS) and the Association of Professional Genealogists (APG). She shares training on her website HalloGenealogyServices.com. An educator at heart, teaching genealogy allows her to share her passion with others.

Sponsored by Pinellas Genealogy Society (PGS), a dynamic group of researchers who are dedicated not only to the exploration of their own ancestry but to helping others successfully explore theirs. Located in Largo, Florida, PGS offers a comprehensive array of classes, workshops, seminars, speakers, projects, and publications to assist new as well as experienced researchers.

Try presenting the information to them in bite-size chunks, one interesting ancestor at a time, using brief, 1-3 page narratives with visual impact. Fortin

FRIENDS OF THE LARGO LIBRARY

For inquiries, please email the Friends of Largo Public Library at lpfriends@gmail.com

Christina Lauren Share Their Secrets at Largo Turns a Page

Christina Lauren is the combined pen name of Christina Hobbs (Lo) and Lauren Billings (PQ), long time writing partners and best friends and international bestselling coauthors. Lo lives in California with her husband, teenagers, and dogs. She earned her doctorate in neuroscience from UC Irvine with research in neurodegeneration in aging. PQ lives in Utah with her husband and daughter and used to spend her days as a junior high school counselor. Together, they have penned more than 30 books and been translated into as many language! They've been featured in publications such as Forbes, The Atlantic, Washington Post and Entertainment Weekly. The March 21 Largo Turns a Page was widely successful, with fans of the duo coming out in droves! The Friends of Largo Library happily sponsored their library appearance and widely successful evening.

We Sing and Celebrate Ourselves at the Spring Volunteer Luncheon

American Poet Walt Whitman in his Song of Myself wrote that we sing and celebrate ourselves! "For every atom as belonging to me as good belongs to you." Indeed, that's exactly what we did at the spring Volunteer Luncheon on March 26 where we gathered as thanks for our hard work over the year. We met for lunch at the Historic Largo Feed Store across from the Library and celebrated another successful year. There were about 50 of us there who normally spend our time at the library bookstore, now happily taking a break and enjoying food provided by Jamie Groves of Indian Rocks Eats. We happily named our well-deserved Volunteers of the Year.

Congratulations to Lissa Dexter and Tammi Lombardi for your constant effort and wonderful achievement! Lissa tackles whatever job is offered and Tammi is the Master of our online book sales! You both exemplify so much of what the Friends of Largo Library is all about—hard work, generous time, and fun! And further thanks to Lissa Dexter, for planning this marvelous luncheon occasion where we reflect on our joint year of work and effort to make our Largo Library Bookstore one of the most successful in the area.

Twice-a-Year Book Sale in January

It was another wild 3-day book sale in January, and we're happy to report that the crowds are returning! We again met in the Jenkins Rooms and filled those rooms with titles from a variety of categories and genres. There was table, after table, after table of collectibles and readables, with the last day of the sale featuring $1 bags filled to the brim. Thanks to one and all for their support of this Friends endeavor! Now its time to look ahead to our Fall Book Sale, and we hope you'll join us then! Stay tuned for more information on the dates.

English Conversation Club Facilitator

Facilitator, Ashley Velu, wrapped her 18-week session leading the English conversation club. Ashley found exciting and interesting ways each week to help Largo's English speakers of other languages boost their conversation skills. The conversation club provides a fun and casual atmosphere to practice and improve one's English. Anyone can come, speakers of all levels are welcome. Registration is not required. Ashley will be missed; we also hope that the opportunity to lead the club will contribute to an exciting future for her. Additionally, the library's English Language Learning (ELL) program is grateful to the Rotary Club of Largo and the Greater Largo Library Foundation, both organizations provided the funds for Ashley's honorarium.
